TEACHER EXCELLENCE DAY, FRI—NO SCHOOL

Oct 5, 2017

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Volume 5, Issue 6

Have you had a chance to see the new auction display in the foyer? Alyssa Ryan and Monira Vakil created a nautical display of procured items needed for the auction. How does it work? Simply, tell the office staff the NUMBER of the procured item for which you will be responsible. (Do not remove the star.) The office staff will give you a procurement slip. Fill it out. Take the pink copy with you, leave the rest of the slip with the office. Then procure away. You may have to combine a couple of items to meet your $200 auction obligation.

All procurement items are due by Dec. 1. Thereafter, you will be billed $200 for your auction commitment. If you have any questions, please contact Alyssa via email: auction@icrsweb.org.

SAFeway SCRIP CARDS (red and white) return them for a refund. Red and white Safeway cards have been compromised. Please return them by December 1st, 2017, for reimbursement. After that date we will no longer accept them. Please tell friends and family who have ordered Scrip. Thank you! Any questions, contact Patti Swartz pattianne32@yahoo.com or Colleen O'Leary Schaeffer@hotmail.com

MAGAZINE SALE. Thank you to the 97 families who have sold $13,245 of merchandise online. Not bad for an online-only sale. Compared to last year, we are almost on par. 6th grade has jumped to the lead with 62% participation. 5th and 6th grades advance to top sales, each selling 103 items. Way to go, families. Thank you for all your efforts.

FULCRUM Tuition Assistance Grant is open for enrollment beginning Oct 1. This is the only application to fill out and be eligible for Fulcrum assistance and in-house assistance for 18-19 school year. Go to: fulcrumfoundation.org
