PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Volume 5, Issue 12

ICRS hosted about 60 veterans and their families at last Thursdays' Veterans Assembly. Thank you Mr. Bell and the 6th grade for organizing the assembly. Thank you Mr. Fejerman, the Concert Band students, Mrs. Relyea and the choir, and Mrs. Kerley, parent volunteers, and the 4th graders for serving breakfast. 2nd and 5th graders provided letters and cards which were greatly appreciated. Thank you all.

The Accreditation Team was here on Nov 8 for a previsit. Mrs. Barriga and her team provided a delicious lunch with a fall theme.

Thank you parents for providing the hospitality.

SAVE THE DATE, Dec 12. The visiting team will be back Dec 12-14. They would like to meet with ICRS parents on Tuesday, Dec 12 at 5PM in the SJC Foyer. This is your opportunity to share with them the wonderful school your children attend.

DEC 1 is the deadline to turn in your auction procurement items. Families will be billed thereafter.

KITCHEN HELP. Now that we've moved hot lunch to SJC, we have no one cleaning the kitchen in the main building. Can you help us clean the kitchen weekly? Please call the office if you can.

SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION, December 8, ICRS will celebrate our Patroness at 10:30 Mass. Please join us on this Holy Day of Obligation.

BOYS BASKETBALL. The 7th and 8th grade boys' basketball season is off to a good start. Both teams notched wins on Tuesday against Bay View. A total of 17 ICRS boys from 7th and 8th grades are representing the school.

From a 5th Grader, Thomas: "I am having lots of fun playing basketball. I learned a new way of scoring a hoop. It's called lunging where you stand at the block and shoot."

FUNDRAISING STATEMENTS are going home today.
